IU President’s Medal of Excellence awarded to two Alliance members

Susan Gubar and Douglas P. Zipes recipients of prestigious award

IU President Michael A. McRobbie awarded the 2010 President’s Medal for Excellence to Susan Gubar (BL), Distinguished Professor Emerita of English and Douglas P. Zipes (IN), Distinguished Professor Emeritus (cardiology). The awards are among the highest honors an IU President can bestow and are presented in recognition of sustained excellence in service, achievement and leadership.

Professor Gubar taught at IU for more than 36 years and, along with Sandra M. Gilbert, published the Madwoman in the Attic: The Woman Writer and the 19th-Century Literary Imagination in 1979, a runner-up for both The Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Critics Circle Award. Professor Gubar is the recipient of several awards for her work including awards from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Guggenheim Foundation.

Dr. Zipes, director emeritus of the IU School of Medicine’s Cardiology Division, has published more than 750 articles and 18 books. Dr. Zipes is recipient of the Distinguished Achievement Award, the Herrick Award and the Cor Vitae award from the American Heart Association, the Distinguished Scientist Award from the Heart Rhythm Society and from the American College of Cardiology, and Master of the American College of Cardiology and Sagamore of the Wabash, to name a few.

For more information, please go to: http://newsinfo.iu.edu/news/page/normal/15537.html

President McRobbie is honored by Australian National University

President Michael McRobbie, Alliance Honorary Member, was awarded an honorary Doctor of Letters degree from...
President McRobbie was recognized by his alma mater for the significant contributions he has made in the fields of artificial intelligence and computational science, as well as his achievements in university leadership and innovation.

President McRobbie was made an honorary member of The Australian Academy of the Humanities in 2007 and appointed an Officer in the General Division of the Order of Australia in summer of 2010, a national award signifying “distinguished service of a high degree to Australia or to humanity at large.”

For more information, please go to:

Dean Brater appointed to new university position

Dean Craig Brater (IN), IU School of Medicine and Walter J. Daly Professor, is the newly created additional position of vice president for university clinical affairs. In this position, Dean Brater will chair the University Clinical Affairs Cabinet, which will consist of the deans or heads of the university’s main clinical units, including the schools of medicine, nursing, dentistry, optometry and health and rehabilitation sciences. He will also be responsible for ensuring that all of IU’s clinical activities are coordinated with its key clinical partners, including Clarian Health, the Wishard Health System and the Roudebush VA Medical Center.

For more information, please go to:
http://newsinfo.iu.edu/news/page/normal/15917.html

---

Overhage elected to Institute of Medicine

J. Marc Overhage (IN), Regenstrief Professor of Medical Informatics, has been elected to the prestigious Institute of Medicine of the National Academy of Sciences. Dr. Overhage is a national leader in the development and implementation of electronic medical records and health information exchange.

Dr. Overhage also founded the Indiana Health Information Exchange, which provides hospitals and doctors’ offices with information from hospitalizations, doctors’
Three Alliance members elected fellows

Roger Hangarter (BL), Chancellor’s Professor of Biology, Rudy Raff (BL), Distinguished Professor and James H. Rudy Professor of Biology, and Edward Carmines (BL), Rudy Professor of Political Science and Warner O. Chapman Professor of Political Science have been elected 2010 fellows of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the world’s largest general scientific society. Also elected were IU Bloomington biologists, Lynda Delph and Roger Innes.

The American Association for the Advancement of Science is the publisher of the journal Science. AAAS was founded in 1848, and includes some 262 affiliated societies and

IU’s Jacobs Musicology Department receives high ranking

The Musicology Department of the Jacobs School of Music is ranked among the best in the United States in the Assessment of Research Doctorate Programs by the National Research Council (NRC). The Jacobs Musicology Department ranks between first and eighth overall in the rankings of 63 academic programs in music based on 21 measures of quality. Performance was not ranked.

The NRC is part of the National Academies, a nonprofit institution that provides science, technology and health policy advice under a congressional charter.

For more information, please go to:

KSOB receives private gift for new Institute

The Institute for Global Organizational Effectiveness is being established in the Kelley School of Business through a $4.8 million private gift coordinated by the GEO Global Foundation. It is the largest single gift to the school from someone who is not an IU alumnus. Herman Aguinis (BL), Dean’s Research Professor, Department of Management and Entrepreneurship and a native of Argentina, will direct the new institute.

Bloomington Provost, Karen Hanson, Rudy Professor of Philosophy, stated “We are deeply grateful for this generous gift, which provides extraordinary support for globalization, one of five strategic initiatives for the campus.”

For more information on the activities of the Institute, please go to:

http://newsinfo.iu.edu/news/page/normal/13931.html
2011 Alliance Fall Dinner

The 2011 Alliance Fall meeting and dinner will be held on Monday, October 3, 2011, in Bloomington at the Indiana Memorial Union. President Michael McRobbie and Bloomington Provost Karen Hanson will be hosting the event. The general business meeting will begin at 5:00 p.m., followed by a reception at 6:00 p.m. and dinner at 6:30.

You will be receiving more information later this summer about the event.

Please mark your calendars now and plan to attend.

Special Honors and Awards

Marion E. Broome (IN), Dean and Distinguished Professor, School of Nursing, has been inducted into the newly created Sigma Theta Tau International Nurse Researcher Hall of Fame. Broome is a pediatric nurse. Her research interests include developing and testing interventions designed to assist children to cope with acute and chronic pain.

J. Peter Burkholder (BL), Distinguished Professor, Jacobs School of Music, has been named an honorary member of the American Musicological Society (AMS). He is the youngest person to receive the highest honor the society bestows on one of its members.

For more information, go to: http://newsinfo.iu.edu/news/page/normal/16424.html

Henry Glassie (BL), College Professor Emeritus, is the recipient of the American Folklore Society’s (AFS) Lifetime Achievement Award. The award is the highest honor that the AFS bestows and it is bestowed upon a living senior scholar in recognition of outstanding scholarly achievement over the course of a career.

Two other IU professors who previously received this honor are: Richard Bauman (BL), Distinguished Professor Emeritus of Folklore and Linda Dégh (BL), Distinguished Professor Emerita of Folklore

For more information, go to: http://newsinfo.iu.edu/new/page/normal/16253.html

Donald F. Kuratko (BL), Jack M. Gill Chair of Entrepreneurship, received the Riata Distinguished Entrepreneurship Scholar Award. This is the third time that an IU Kelley School of Business professor has been recognized with this award.

Jeffrey G. Covin, Glaubinger Professor of Entrepreneurship, received it in 2005 and Dean A. Shepherd, Randall L. Tobias Chair in Entrepreneurship Leadership, received it in 2007.

For more information, go to: http://newsinfo.iu.edu/news/page/normal/16516.html

Michael McRobbie, President and Honorary Member of the Alliance, has been named as an officer of the Big Ten Conference’s Council of Presidents/Chancellors (COP/C).

For more information, please go to: http://newsinfo.iu.edu/news/page/normal/14924.html

Lauren K. Robel (BL), Dean and Val Nolan Professor of Law, has been named president-elect of the Association of American Law Schools. She will serve a one-year term beginning in January 2012. The AALS is legal education’s principal representative to the federal government and to other national higher-education and learned societies.

For more information, please go to:
Scott Russell Sanders (BL), Distinguished Professor Emeritus of English, has been selected as the national recipient of the 2010 Eugene and Marilyn Glick Indiana Authors Award. This lifetime achievement award recognizes the contributions of Indiana authors to the literary landscape in Indiana and across the nation.

For more information, please go to: http://newsinfo.iu.edu/news/page/normal/16877.html

George Sledge, Jr. (IN), Ballé Lantero Professor of Oncology, has been named president of the American Society of Clinical Oncology. Dr. Sledge is a nationally recognized pioneer in the development of novel therapies for breast cancer. He will serve as president for one year.

Dror Wahrman (BL), Ruth N. Halls Professor in the Department of History in the College of Arts & Sciences, and Michel Chaouli, associate professor in the Department of Germanic Studies, have been appointed to serve as Henry H.H. Remak Distinguished Scholars for 2010-2011 by IU’s Institute for Advanced Study. The award recognizes Remak’s enthusiasm for scholarship in all fields and the mission of the Institute to promote innovative ways of thinking.

New Members

We welcome the following new members to the Alliance since the June 2010 issue of Excellence.

Katy Börner (BL), Victor H. Yngve Professor of Information Science

Elliot J. Androphy (IN), Kampen-Norins Professor of Dermatology

Alan Breier (IN), AAMHRE/IUPA Professor of Psychiatry

Thomas A. Brush (BL), Barbara B. Jacobs Chair in Education and Technology

Maryellen E. Gusic (IN), Dolores and John Read Professor of Medical Education

Andrea Hohmann (BL), Linda and Jack Gill Chair of Neuroscience

David A. Ingram, Jr. (IN), Hugh McK. Landon Chair in Pediatrics

Jorge José (BL), James H. Rudy Professor, Professor of Physics

Reuben Kapur (IN), Frieda and Albrecht Kipp Chair in Pediatrics

Peter W. Kloosterman (BL), Martha Lea and Bill Armstrong Chair for Teacher Education

Raghu G. Mirmira (IN), Eli Lilly and Company Professor of Pediatric Diabetes

Joon Park (IN), Wisnewsky Professor of Human Studies, Department of Economics

Peggy A. Thoits (BL), Virginia L. Roberts Professor, Department of Sociology

Xiao-Ming Yin (IN), Louis Y. Mazzini Professor of Pathology

Members who have received new or additional titles:

William M. Tierney (IN), Sam Regenstrief Professor of Health Services Research

In Memoriam

The Alliance wishes to extend their deepest sympathy to the families and friends of the following members who have passed away.

Roy J. Gardner (BL), Chancellor’s Professor of...
Promotion of Excellence Nominations

Nominations are solicited for honorary membership in the Alliance and the Alliance’s Henry R. Besch, Jr. Promotion of Excellence Award in 2011. The Alliance is committed to the promotion of excellence at Indiana University. In keeping with this mission, members elect from time to time individuals to honorary membership in the Alliance and for the Henry R. Besch, Jr. Promotion of Excellence Award.

To be eligible for these awards, an individual must have (1) pursued excellence in her or his own career; (2) facilitated the achievement of excellence in others; (3) created mechanisms at Indiana University that enabled others to pursue excellence; and or (4) moved an organizational unit at IU forward to achieve an outstanding reputation.

Members wishing to nominate an individual for the excellence award and honorary membership should contact the Alliance office for more information. Nomination deadline is April 1, 2011.